

Infant Feeding Preference

Uncle Sam's Academy participates in the Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP). In order to qualify for reimbursement, we must provide at least one meal component for your child when your child is ready for it. We have included a meal pattern chart to help you understand the components children need at certain ages. You will be asked to accept or decline our meal components at three different ages; 0-3 months, 4-7 months and 8-11 months. If you choose to decline all our meal components during any of these periods you will need to provide all the food and formula your child will need on a daily basis while in our care during that period of growth.
